

Name: _____

Date: _____

100 Words That All High School Graduates- And Their Parents- Should Know

Across

1. Divide a part of land into sections based upon voting to make an election unfair

2. Unquestionable

5. Trustee, holding something of value for someone

6. Unit of currency among Europeans

12. The influence over someone, leadership

14. Iron containing pigment in the red blood cells of the vertebrae

16. Lacking social polish

18. Humorous

19. The same, similar

20. Vanishing

Down

3. Pride

4. Reproductive cell that has the haploid number of chromosomes

7. To remove one from office

8. The side of a right triangle opposite the right angle, the longest side

9. Something that obstructs progress, a long speech

10. Irresponsible

11. To remove vulgar material before publication

13. Concealed

15. Delusive; unreal

17. When day and night are approximately the same length