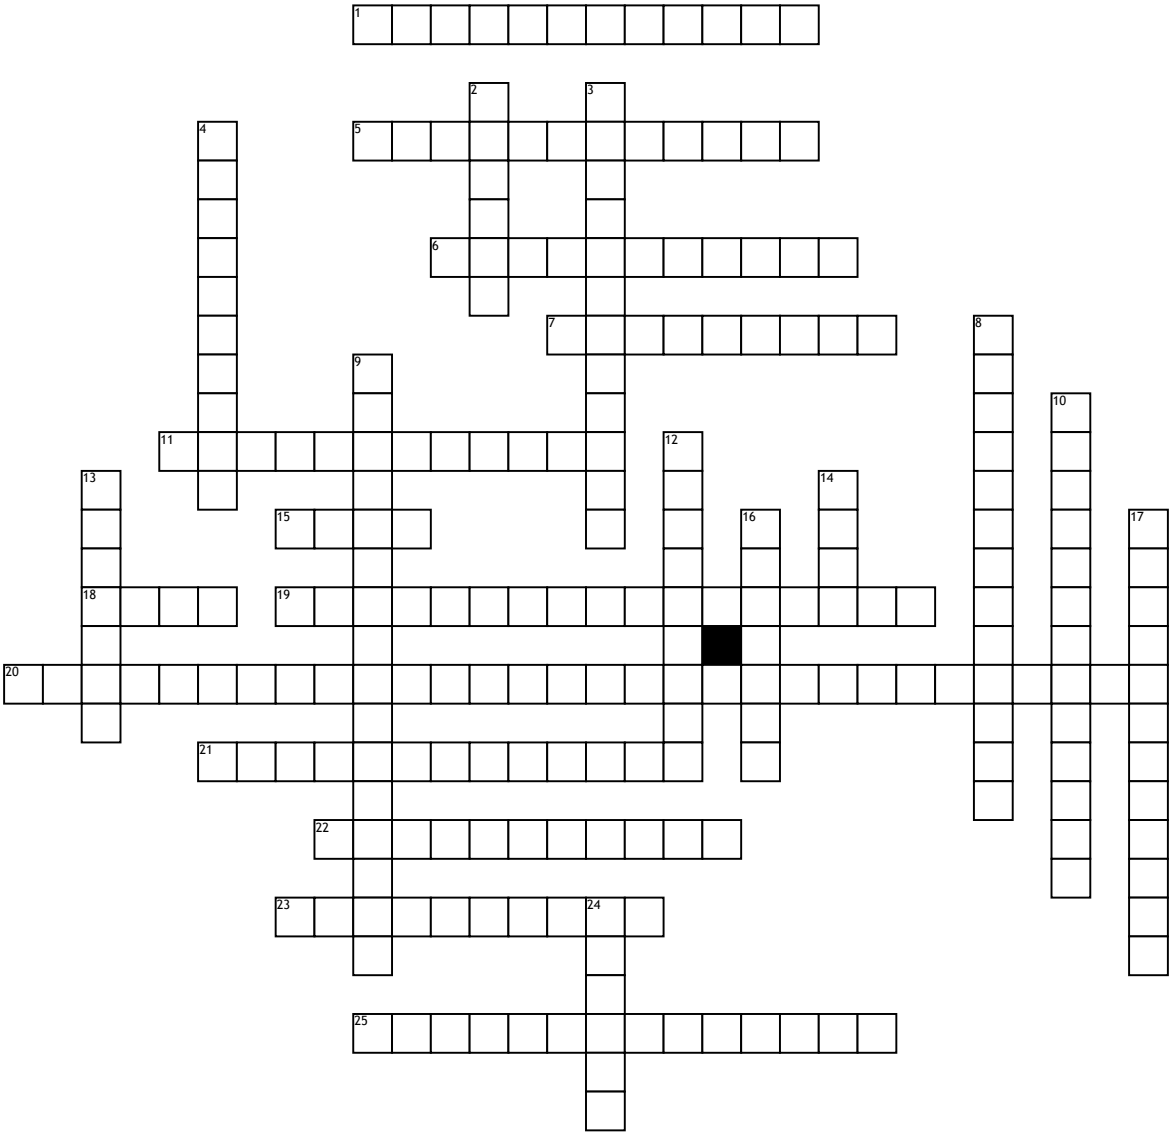
Name: _____ Date: _____

Forensics



Across

1. the actively growing root or base of a hair containing DNA and living cells.

5. Scientific evidence is allowed into the courtroom if it is generally accepted by the relevant scientific community.

6. period of growth in the hair cycle, averaging 3 – 5 years.

7. Law: group of people who look at the evidence against someone who has been accused of a crime in order to decide if there should be a trial

11. irregularly shaped air spaces in the cortex.

15. the lenthwise yarn or thread in a weave.

18. a continuous strand of fibers or filaments, either twisted or not.

19. the body of law made up of judicial opinions and precedents.

20. a hearing before a judge to determine whether a person charged with a crime should be held for trial

21. rights guaranteed by the Constitution (police must read to arrestees)

22. minor crime punishable by fine in jail

23. the science that deals with motion, behavior, most often firearm and bullet

25. a method of serperating components of mixtures

Down

2. major crime punishable by fines and one year in prison

3. judge decides if the evidence can be entered into the trial.

4. minor offense penalty fine

8. situation in which a reasonable person, viewing all the available information, would conclude that a crime was committed by the suspect

9. When a criminal comes in contact with another person, place, or object, a cross transfer of evidence occurs.

10. material that connects an individual or thing to a certain group.

12. single strands of material, usually twisted with other filaments to make a thread or fiber

13. a molecule consisting of many identical repeating units; polymers can be naturally occurring

14. The temporary release of a prisoner in exchange for security given for the due appearance of the prisoner

16. An arrangement to have something (such as a room) held for your use at a later time.

17. final phase in hair growth, resulting in the loss of hair over about 3 months.

24. middle layer of the hair shaft that provides strength; comprises most of the hair mass; the region of a hair located outside of the medulla containing granules of pigments.

Create your own puzzle at WordMint.com or print one of our 500,000+ pre-made word searches, crosswords, and more.