

100 words

Across

- 2. quickness of perception or discernment (understanding)
- 4. characterized by or consisting of two parts or components
- 5. extremely scanty (bare)
- 7. of doubtful authority or authenticity
- 16. to depart from or evade the truth
- 18. energy and enthusiasm in the expression of ideas
- 19. the choice and use of words in speech or writing
- 20. bitter, harsh, or biting sharpness
- 21. more than is wanted or is sufficient

- 23. having only one side

- 24. bitterly sarcastic
- 25. not straightforward or candid; insincere or calculating

Down

- 1. the thing speaks for itself
- 3. a stock of terms used in a particular profession, subject or style; a vocabulary
- 6. to make or grow better
- 8. to sketch, outline in a shadowy way
- 9. seize the moment
- 10. lack of discernment or long-range perspective in thinking or planning
- 11. a warning or caution

- 12. to cancel, destroy, revoke, or void

- 13. making a loud outcry
- 14. sharp, biting, or acid in temper, expression, or tone
- 15. an accomplished and presumably irreversible deed or fact
- 17. having two opposite or contradictory ideas
- 22. Omission or suppression of parts of words or sentences with a mark or series of marks (... or *** for example)

Word Bank

Ameliorate	acrimony	Adumbrate	Fait accompli	Diction
abrogate	Caveat	Exiguous	Res Ipsa Loquitur	Binary
Bi-polar	Acumen	Vociferous	Sardonic	Disingenuous
Acerbic	Carpe diem	Superfluous	Myopic	Lexicon
Unilateral	Prevaricate	Apocryphal	Ellipsis	Verve