

1.01 Medical Terminology

Across

1. a congenital disorder characterized by the complete or partial absence of pigment in the skin, hair and eyes
2. a condition of the skin in which it becomes red, swollen, and sore, sometimes with small blisters
4. abnormal enlargement of the liver
5. of, forming, or occupying interstices
7. paralyzed on one side of the body
8. the treatment of disease by conventional means, i.e., with drugs having opposite effects to the symptoms
13. further back in position; of or nearer the rear or hind end
14. An increase in blood volume because of excessive plasma or water with or without a reduction in the concentration of blood proteins
15. technical term for foreskin
20. a widespread disease
23. a condition resulting from the appearance of endometrial tissue outside the uterus and causing pelvic pain
25. a reconstruction or repair of the bronchus

26. situated near the median plane of the body or the midline of an organ

28. difficulty breathing

32. slow heart rate

33. a flexible fiber-optic instrument inserted through the anus in order to examine the colon

36. a substance that kills bacteria

37. a neoplasm consisting of immature undifferentiated cells

38. or who specializes in the study or treatment of heart diseases and heart abnormalities

39. of, at, toward, or from the side or sides

40. high blood pressure

41. circular movement of a body part

Down

3. a surgical operation to remove a breast

6. diseases produced to fight against substances present in the body

9. a molecule that can be bonded to other identical molecules to form a polymer

10. situated or extending across something

11. a surgical operation in which a piece of the colon is diverted to an artificial opening in the abdominal wall

12. surgical opening into the skull

16. situated or occurring behind the peritoneum

17. three fluid-filled bony channels in the inner ear

18. the layer of areolar connective tissue lying beneath a mucous membrane

19. an ache localized in or around a tooth

21. the branch of medicine that deals with diseases and abnormalities of the heart

22. prevents or reduces fever

24. a disease caused by trichinae, typically from infected meat

27. existing or taking place within, or administered into, a vein or veins

29. an abnormally low concentration of oxygen in the blood

30. relating to the teeth

31. Fear of microscopic or small things, esp. germs

34. relating to or determined by polygenes

35. another term for amylase