

10 Elements of an Effective Speaker

Across

- 2. At some point during your speech you need to answer people's _____.
- 6. If you are standing perfectly still during your speech you need to work on this.
- 8. When you deliver your speech with _____ the reader doesn't have to ask the "why?" question at the end.
- 10. If you want your speech to reach the given time you need to _____ your speech.

Down

- 1. These help the your audience have a better idea of what you are talking about.

- 3. In order to make the listener feel more involved in your speech you must make _____ with them.
- 4. If you practice your speech, and put your notes in order, you will be _____ for your speech
- 5. If the people in the back can't hear you talk you need to adjust this.
- 7. Your manner or disposition with regard to a person or thing.
- 9. The opposite of being monotone is when you enunciate and _____ your words