

11.22.63 Vocab

Across

6. An expression of sympathy with another's grief

13. A follower of a political philosophy which is characterized by a strong central government with no acceptance for others

14. Housing that someone is living in

15. Requiring secret knowledge

16. An amateur who engages in activities that he/she is not knowledgeable in.

17. To reject something

18. To make a shrill wailing sound like a cat

19. A statement that everyone believes is true.

20. A square board with a handle underneath

Down

1. Outrageously bad

2. A state in America where Kennedy was killed

3. The person who assassinated President Kennedy

4. A professor who supported communism and befriended / supported Lee Harvey Oswald

5. Someone who believes that people of different sexes or colours should not work together

7. Behaviour that is different to what one believes

8. A corrupt practise

9. An act of criticism

10. Marked by hidden methods

11. To examine a body part

12. A thin piece of fabric