

Name: _____

Date: _____

15 sights in Rome

Across

3. is a rectangular forum in the center of the city of Rome

7. Baths of Diocletian National Museum

8. An independent state within the city of Rome

10. flea market

11. Inside this Navona church are three of the baroque artist's works, including the "Calling of St. Matthew" (one of his most famous works), "Matthew and the Angel," and "Matthew's Martyrdom."

12. longest and widest staircase in all of Europe

13. Monument to Victor Emmanuel II

14. prime location in the sprawling gardens at Villa Borghese

15. underground burial places in the Via Appia Antica

Down

1. An ancient amphitheater in Rome began in a.d. c70 by vespasian, having the form of an oval

2. a rectangular square south of Piazza Navona used as a marketplace during the day, and party central for college students and tourists at night

4. A domed circular temple in Rome

5. fortress on the Tiber River

6. beautiful and charming squares lined with restaurants and open-air cafes

9. mausoleum of the Emperor Hadrian, built between 135 and 139 AD