

1800s

Across

2. sharp wire with spikes around it is called

8. A nickname given to a close friend

9. a person who works by growing crops and raises animals is a

12. A term meaning "inferior, noisy singers"

13. one who has broken the law and their picture is put on a poster is

14. Some one who robs is a

15. people who live in a town are called

Down

1. The mouth

3. you go to this place for a hair cut or for a new hir-do

4. transportation in the 1800's thats pulled by horses

5. A delightful way to refer to your rather boring hands

6. An excellent word that means getting rowdy in the streets.

7. long mettal spread across many places that trains move along is called

10. talkative woman

11. A street term meaning coward