

18025680

Across

- 2. means and instruments of brute force or coercion
- 4. The capacity to influence or control the behavior of persons and institutions, whether by persuasion or coercion
- 8. the legal and moral right of a government to rule over a specific population and control a specific territory
- 13. An independent political administrative unit that successfully claims the allegiance of a given population, exercises monopoly on the legitimate use of coercive force, and controls the territory inhabited by its citizens
- 14. A government's capacity to assert supreme power successfully in a political state

- 15. A specific people with a distinct language and culture or a major ethnic group
- 16. Fairness; the distribution of rewards and burdens of society in accordance with what is deserved
- 17. A geographically defined community administered by a government
- 18. People who are scattered over a territory of several states or dispersed widely and who have no autonomous, independent or sovereign governing body of their own, like palestinians.

Down

- 1. An existing or desired arrangement of institutions based on certain principles such as liberty, equality and security

- 3. A process, specifically one related to the exercise of power over others
- 5. Command of the obedience of society's members by a government
- 6. A form of government in which sovereignty resides in the people of that country, rather the ruler
- 7. The exercise of political power in a community in a way that is voluntarily accepted by the members of that community
- 9. A sovereign state
- 10. The persons and institutions that make and enforce rules or laws for the larger community
- 11. An aggregation of individuals who share a common identity
- 12. attractive rather than coercive

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-------------|----------------------|------------------|----------|
| Nation | Legitimate authority | Stateless nation | Republic |
| Country | Authority | Legitimacy | Society |
| Government | State | Nation-state | Order |
| Sovereignty | hard power | Justice | power |
| politics | soft power | | |