

1920'S CULTURAL CHANGE IN THE USA

Across

2. By 1929 most major cities had a baseball stadium that could hold _____ of spectators.

7. _____ was a black American ghetto on Manhattan Island. It became an important destination in the migration from the south in 1920s.

9. _____ was becoming America's national pastime.

10. _____ brought entertainment into the homes of millions of Americans, irrespective of where they lived

11. This organisation aimed to celebrate black American achievement and support the struggle for equal rights

12. Much of jazz music was _____ playing.

Down

1. Cinema allowed America to lead the world in _____.

3. Workers had more money to spend and the consumer boom helped fuel demand for _____.

4. Jazz was denounced by groups such as the _____.

5. _____ was a new lively dance

6. World's first global film star _____.

8. Most notable instrument was the _____.