

1920s Classical Words

Across

- 2. A person who doesn't believe in obeying a ruling power or authority.
- 6. Secret bars where people would go to get a drink after the 18th amendment was ratified.
- 9. Any means of communicating with a large amount of people in a short amount of time (such as newspapers, tv, etc.).
- 10. A manufacturing tool whose purpose is to mass produce goods quickly and efficiently.

Down

- 1. The belief that all matter was created by an upper being, not by development or evolution.

- 3. The manufacturing of goods in large quantities.

- 4. Transporting (usually a foreigner) away from the country.

- 5. A policy that believes in favoring native residents as opposed to immigrants.

- 7. An automobile first built by the Ford Motor Company for the purpose of affordable transportation.

- 8. A type of American music developed in the early 20th century and quickly gained popularity with the rest of the world.