

Name: _____

Date: _____

1920's Crossword

Across

1. This allowed workers of companies to buy stock, and participate in profit sharing, etc.
6. Things that aimed at a broad audience that did more than just entertain. Radio, movies, etc.
8. Group that believed that immigrants wouldn't assimilate into American culture, and wanted to restrict immigration.
9. This allowed a greater freedom to express themselves through certain things. Music, writing, etc.
10. A plan for making the payment of debts easier for countries

Down

2. A large scale of manufacturing done with machinery.
3. The most famous scandal that started in early 1922.
4. An American diplomat that negotiated an agreement with multiple countries, France, Britain etc.
5. This writer used irony and humor to criticize upper-class ignorance and pretensions.
7. People who opposed all forms of government.