

1920s Entertainment

Across

- 2. Thanks to easier travelling, many Americans were now in the position to go on '_____'
- 6. 60 million Americans went here to watch movies a week in 1927
- 12. America's most popular baseball player in the 1920s
- 14. The dance performed to honour Charles Lindbergh for crossing the Atlantic in an airplane in 1927
- 15. The popular device at the time that was listened to for entertainment and catching up on the news
- 16. The small town north of Los Angeles where major film producers would begin to shoot their movies thanks to the climate
- 17. In 1921 the first '_____' America Pageant was held

18. The name given to the first films with audio

19. The music that originated from blues and ragtime music of African-Americans

20. The '_____' Twenties

Down

1. A famous mouse created for use in cartoons by Walt Disney

3. The game you are playing now that was made popular in the 1920s

4. The most popular sport in the 1920s

5. The surname of the writer who wrote 'The Great Gatsby'

7. A name given to young women who would wear their hair short, wear skirts and commonly dislike what was known as acceptable behaviour for women.

8. A Chinese game that rose in popularity during this era

9. In the 1920 women's '_____' was more free and colourful than ever before

10. The main group of people who disliked the new type of entertainment in the 1920s as they believed it was rude and against their religious views

11. Famous Male actor who performed in many silent films and gained a lot of popularity

13. One of the most famous dances of the 1920s beginning with a 'c'