

Name: _____

Date: _____

1948 Book 2 Chapter 1-3 Vocab

Across

- 2. a state of anxiety or nervous excitement
- 5. (of a plant) pale and drawn out due to a lack of light
- 6. deferential respect

- 8. reason given in justification of a course of action that's not the real reason
- 10. beliefs or principles of a group of English Protestants
- 11. showing a willingness to act dishonestly in return for personal gain
- 12. incapable of making mistakes or being wrong

Down

- 1. free (someone or something) from a constraint or difficulty
- 3. publicly declare to be wrong
- 4. Set off within or as if within parentheses
- 7. outward behavior
- 9. commonplace or dull

Word Bank

- |             |            |                 |            |
|-------------|------------|-----------------|------------|
| prosaically | corrupt    | parenthetically | demeanor   |
| etiolated   | infallible | obeisance       | pretext    |
| denounce    | extricate  | agitation       | Puritanism |