

1984 Vocab

Across

3. the puck is a _____ of hockey.
 4. the cashier is _____ to the manager.
 5. a stick shaped weapon police officers carry
 7. time is _____, which means it's impossible to stop.
 9. large weapons used in the military
 12. this is another word revenge
 13. the crowd _____ outside the white house for equal rights.

14. having a prejudice intolerance of other's opinions is called being _____

16. arch shaped cut out in a wall
 17. the burglar was very _____ when trying to sneak into the home
 18. the body builder was _____ to the beginners at the gym.
 19. the ink & quill was very _____
 20. the pastor is a _____, and doesn't go a day without reading the bible.

Down

1. it was very _____ when the man came to the business meeting pantsless.

2. the old woman had _____ veins, which were very painful over time.

6. the maze was _____, and the family could not find their way out for hours.
 8. the old man had a _____ of pain in his back when he walked without his cane.
 10. at the end of the dark tunnel there was a _____ which allowed light to shine through.
 11. the ballerina _____ when she was dancing around the stage.
 15. the uncooked steak was _____ to the customer of the restaurant.

Word Bank

labyrinthine formidable zealot
 inexorably

bigoted
 alcove
 disdainful varicose

armaments
 twinge
 truncheons
 gyrate

vindictiveness
 unorthodox
 clamored
 aureole

archaic impedimenta
 furtive
 subordinate