

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea

Across

- 4. The state of being stupefied. Page 77.
- 9. "No one; nobody" in Latin. Page 72.
- 12. A period of time in history or a person's life Page 257.
- 13. A type of bony fish. Page 351.
- 16. Remarkably or impressively great in extend, size, or degree. Page 19.
- 17. Most extreme; greatest. Page 361.
- 18. Part of the palate of the mouth Page 100.
- 20. To kill someone by depriving them of air. Page 313.

- 22. Difficult to find, catch, or achieve. Page 19.
 - 23. Someone who studies the zoological branch of fish. Page 13.
- Down
- 1. A feeling that something bad will happen. Page 173.
 - 2. To entertain or amuse with talk. Page 73.
 - 3. The quality or state of being all the same. Page 88.
 - 5. Not exactly known. Page 16.
 - 6. Too great to be overcome. Page 364.
 - 7. To exhaust the strength, vitality, or natural fertility of. Page 62.

- 8. Light created by a substance without combustion. Page 13.
- 10. The appearance of something remarkable or unexpected. Page 13.
- 11. Sudden or unaccountable changes in mood or behavior. Page 260.
- 14. Unusually long in relations to width. Page 40.
- 15. A small, inflatable rubber boat. Page 142.
- 19. An instrument designed to keep accurate time in spite of motion. Page 84.
- 21. To make more noticeable or prominent. Page 367.