

2.07 Digestive Medical Terminology

Across

1. inflammation of the bladder
2. the gums
7. treats disease gums and teeth
11. A manifestation of tension or anxiety in which the tongue is attracted to the teeth or to dental faults
13. forms half of the calf muscle
14. chew (food)

Down

3. a waxy, fat-like substance that occurs naturally in all parts of the body.
4. disease of especially the small intestine
5. healthcare workers are recommended to be tested for this:
6. blood in the feces that's not visibly apparent

8. another name for a large intestine
9. relates to speech or language
10. a complication of liver disease which involves loss of liver cells and irreversible scarring of the liver.
12. receives food from the esophagus