

22 TTT#1

Across

- 1. A British economist who argued that deficit spending was the way to end the depression.
- 3. Informal radio broadcast in which FDR explained issues and new deal programs to average Americans.
- 5. Economic theory that favored public works projects because they put money in the hands of consumers who would buy more goods, stimulating the economy.
- 8. Key new deal agency that provided work relief through various public works projects(abbreviated).
- 9. Programs and legislation enacted by FDR during the Great Depression to promote economic recovery and social reform.

- 11. 1935 law that set up a pension system for retirees, established unemployment insurance and created insurance for victims of work related accidents. It also provided aid poverty stricken mothers and children, the blind and the disabled.
- 13. Process in which employees negotiate with labor unions about hours, wages and other working conditions.
- 14. FDR's wife who because of his disability served as his eyes and ears and broke the role of the traditional ceremonial First Lady.
- 15. President of the United States who over came obstacles to put his "new deal" into place which aided in the recovery of the Great Depression.
- 16. Legislative activity begun by FDR in 1935 to solve problems created by the Great Depression.

Down

- 2. New deal law that abolished unfair labor practices, recognized the right of employees to join labor unions and gave workers the right to collective bargaining.
- 4. New deal program that provided young men with relief jobs on environmental conservation projects including reforestation and flooding control(abbreviated).
- 6. New deal agency that provided millions of jobs constructing public buildings.(abbreviated).
- 7. Government agency that insures bank deposits, guaranteeing that depositors money will be safe(abbreviated).
- 10. New deal agency that promoted economic recovery by regulation production, prices and wages(abbreviated).
- 12. Government agency that built dams in the Tennessee River valley to control flooding and generate electric power(abbreviated).