

3rd grade science

Across

2. a thin, bony plate that forms on skin

5. A(n) _____ egg has a hard shell.

6. has hair, grows in embryos inside mother, and is fed as a baby with mother's milk

9. has two segments, eight legs, skeleton on the outside, and no antennae

12. a section or a piece of something

13. a(n) _____ has a jelly-like substance.

14. an animal part that protects and feeds an embryo is _____.

15. sometimes has segments, has no legs, and has no skeleton

17. usually lives in the ocean, has a skeleton on the outside, and has legs

18. animals have to be able to _____ to eat.

19. has three body segments, has 6 legs, has antennae, and usually has wings

Down

1. _____ means to make a child or offspring.

3. _____ means to break open the egg and come out.

4. breathes through gills and lungs, lives in water and on land, and lays eggs

7. an animal without a back bone

8. an animal with a backbone

10. a developing animal that is not yet born or hatched is called a(n) _____.

11. sometimes has a shell, lives on land or in the ocean, and sometimes grows very big

16. has scales breaths through lungs, and is cold blooded