

6th Grade ELA Terms

Across

3. Compares 2 unlike things by stating that one thing is another thing.

6. Giving human qualities to nonhuman things.

9. In this point of view they use the words: he, she, they, it.

12. The repetition of a consonant sound at the beginning of a series of words.

13. The author's attitude towards a subject.

16. Something that is true, it can be proven.

17. Someone's thoughts and feelings, cannot be proven.

18. To make a logical guess based on what you read and what you know.

19. The moral or lesson of a story/text. The message.

20. Writing to try to convince someone of something. Like argumentative.

Down

1. A restatement of an author's words in your own words.

2. The most important part of the text.

4. Writing to try to teach or tell someone something.

5. Comparison of two unlike things using like or as.

7. In this point of view they use the word: you.

8. An extreme exaggeration.

10. How the reader feels after reading a text.

11. In this point of view they use the words: I, me, we.

14. The sequence of events in a story.

15. Writing to tell a story.

21. A short statement that presents the main idea and most important points in a piece of writing.