

Name: _____

6th Grade Literature End-of-Year Review

Across

4. A humorous, rhyming, five-line poem with a specific meter and rhyme scheme.
8. A type of language that imitates the sound of something.
9. Something that stands or represents something else.
10. A type of fiction originally told by oral tradition and passed on from generation to generation.
12. The dictionary definition of a word.

13. A fictional tale that explains the actions of gods and heroes or the origins of elements in nature.
14. Type of fiction that is longer than a short story but shorter than a novel.
15. A message about life that is expressed in many different cultures and time periods.

Down

1. The beginning of a plot diagram where the setting, characters, and basic situation are introduced.

2. The struggle between opposing forces.
3. Writing or speech that is not meant to be taken literally.
5. The way a word makes you feel.
6. A figure of speech that uses like or as.
7. The writer's attitude toward his/her audience and subject.
11. The central message of a story.