

ACT Prep Vocabulary

Across

4. A test made to find something out
 5. producing or able to produce a desired connection
 6. to fully understand
 7. to look at or check carefully
 10. result or change that occurs due to each part of an experiment being tested
 11. a finding of fault, disapproval
 13. to explain by use of examples or experiments
 17. similar or comparable in certain respects
 21. the ratio of the amount of solute to the amount of solvent or solution
 23. a final decision based on facts, experience or reasoning
 24. acting against or in an opposite direction

26. reasoning for or against something

27. remaining steady and unchanged
 28. to study the relationship of the parts of something by analysis
 29. the connection between two variables that shows the same effect (the both increase or both decrease)
 30. to make smaller or less, to decrease in size
 31. a factor in an experiment that remains constant

Down

1. nearly, an estimate or figure that is almost exact
 2. a state of being controlled by something else
 3. Existing independent of any other cause
 8. something produced by a cause of condition

9. a close connection between two ideas or two sets of data
 12. a statement in opposition to another
 14. ability to put to a practical use, having something to do with the matter at hand
 15. the extent of a chance that something will occur
 16. in agreement, firm, changeless
 18. most nearly complete or accurate
 19. experimental group in which conditions are controlled
 20. to make sure of the truth of something
 22. freedom from mistake, exact
 25. forming a calculation based on incomplete data