

ACT Vocab

Across

- 2. following curiously
- 3. a persons inherent qualities of mind and character
- 4. characterized by constant change
- 5. recognize or as certain what makes
- 6. spread over a large area
- 11. unwieldy; large or heavy and hard to carry
- 13. become apparent
- 14. an outline

- 17. deny the truth
- 18. a proposition that follows from one already proved
- 20. distress typically caused by something unexpected
- 21. loss of significance
- 22. cause something to occur
- 23. lack of similarity between two facts

- 7. make or become less
- 8. expressing adverse or disapproving comments or judgements
- 9. having or showing a feeling of patronizing superiority
- 10. entirely lacking or freeform
- 12. a written or spoken agreement
- 15. have a mental relationship or connection
- 16. leave the main subject temporarily
- 19. the amount by which something especially a sum of money is too small

Down

- 1. unwilling or negative about something

Word Bank

- | | | | | | |
|---------------|-------------|-------------|---------------|-------------|-------------|
| digress | eclipse | discrepancy | correlate | deficit | cumbersome |
| dynamic | emerge | corollary | differentiate | disposition | disinclined |
| Condescending | contract | critical | contour | devoid | diffuse |
| dismay | consecutive | diminish | determine | contradict | |