

ACT Vocabulary

Across

1. Horrible event that results in extreme loss
 3. One part of a larger object that has been divided into four parts
 6. A unit of angle measure within a circle
 7. A belief that is held to be true by a certain group
 13. To become weak; to become disenchanted
 14. Situated beyond the visible spectrum

15. The triangular section of a wall that fills the space between the two slopes of a roof

17. To change into a cloud of diffused matter

18. A unit of temperature where 0 is absolute zero

Down

2. A temperature scale that measures boiling point of water at 212 degrees

4. Single-celled microorganisms

5. To interpret the meaning, usually of a code or hard-to-read handwriting

8. To misuse something that is sacred

9. A statement that seems contradictory but is actually true

10. To bargain in an annoying manner

11. The field of science that concentrates on relationships between organisms and their environments

12. Deviating from a square, circular, or spherical form by being slightly longer in one area

16. to be well supplied; to have great quantities