

Name: _____

Date: _____

ALL About Emergency Care -

Across

4. lacerations, puncture, incisions
6. an injury caused by fire, heat, chemicals, radiation, or electricity
7. A burn that only affects the epidermis, is superficial and can be treated at home
8. Should seek medical care if burned over 15% of the body
9. This wound cause damage to tissues under the skin

Word Bank

closed wound
second degree burns shock types of wounds

signs of infection first degree burn burn

Adult
Third degree burns children

10. partial thickness burn, affects epidermis and dermis of the skin

Down

1. Involves, epidermis, dermis, muscle, tissue and bones
2. redness, swelling, heat, pain, pus,
3. A person's vitals should be checked if a person has severe bleeding or burns that are severe, because of the potential for
5. should seek medical care if burned over 10% of the body