

ANSWERS - Warfare in Ancient Egypt

Across

- 3. A two-wheeled vehicle drawn (pulled) by horses, used in ancient warfare and racing.
- 4. This strong leader ruled during the first dynastic period of war.
- 5. A common weapon used to stab or thrown at enemies in ancient Egypt warfare. They were made of a wooden pole attached to a flint or bronze blade.
- 8. The ruler of an independent kingdom who maintains the warfare military.
- 10. Their main form of defence in the form of hard, weak leather straps.

- 11. A river which was a vital source for survival during war for Egyptians.
- 12. Army divisions were often named after these.
- 14. Mixed group of Asiatic people from Western Asia invaded the Eastern Nile Delta in the year 1650 BC.
- 15. The time (in numbers) about when ancient Egyptian warfare started.
- 16. In ancient Egypt, this word is used for soldiers that fight on foot.

Down

- 1. The names of two people. One who led the Upper Egypt army and one who led Lower. They are usually relatives of the pharaoh.
- 2. Egyptian soldier's most useful weapon in attacking (two separate objects).
- 6. The name of a certain army who helps patrol the Eastern Mediterranean from enemies on SEA.
- 7. A blue, war crown wore by New Kingdom pharaohs in battle.
- 9. Ancient Egyptians fought to conquer this.
- 13. The goddess of war and destruction.