

APHG Population and Migration

Across

8. This is important in determining how the disease spread so you can predict how it will spread.

9. holds that the potential use of a service at a particular location is directly related to the number of people in a location and inversely related to the distance people must travel to reach the service.

10. simple measure of the number of economic dependents, old or young, that each 100 people in the productive years must support

Down

1. the measure of an individual's satisfaction with a given residential location

2. Migration within a country

3. moving into a population

4. time it takes for a population to double if the present growth rate remains constant

5. adaptation that has become less helpful than harmful

6. People who are forced to migrate from their home country and cannot return for fear of persecution because of their race, religion, nationality, membership in a social group, or political opinion.

7. The portion of Earth's surface occupied by permanent human settlement.

Word Bank

Doubling Time

Gravity Model

Internal Migration

Disease Diffusion

Dependency Ratio

Refugee

Place Utility

Maladaptation

Ecumene

Immigration