

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP English Language and Composition Essential Vocabulary

Across

- 6. Two unlike things are compare using "like" or "as"
- 11. Repetition of a word at the end of a successive clause
- 12. appeal to emotion
- 13. commonly understood cultural or emotional
- 15. The art of effective or persuasive speaking/ writing
- 16. intended to arouse anger

19. Expression with a meaning that is different of the literal meaning

20. Appeal to logic

Down

- 1. Attribute human characteristics to non-human objects
- 2. Contrast or opposition
- 3. The use of components in a sentence are grammatically the same
- 4. Literal dictionary definition

5. Normal order of words reversed

7. Thing regarded as representative or symbolic

8. Rhetorical device that repeats

9. A contrast or difference of two things

10. Drawing a comparison to show similarity

14. Brief/ indirect reference.

17. Seemingly absurd

18. When a word is substituted for another that is closely related

Word Bank

rhetoric allusion metonymy
personification
pathos

inflammatory dichotomy
analogy
Simile
metaphor epistrophe

logos connotation repetition paradox

antithesis parallelism
inversion denotation
figurativelanguage