

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP English Vocab

Across

- 2. choice of words
- 3. appeal to emotion
- 7. bringing together many sources
- 9. placement of two things side by side
- 11. main statement
- 15. created speaker
- 18. tendency or inclination to lean
- 19. terminology related to a group or profession
- 20. most famous pieces of literature
- 21. indirect reference
- 22. Phrase with more than one meaning

Down

- 1. intended to teach
- 4. analyzes strategies
- 5. sentence structure
- 6. Direct opposites
- 8. reason
- 10. Human characteristics given to inanimate objects
- 12. overexaggeration

Across

- 13. overused expression
- 14. implied meaning
- 16. appeal to logic
- 17. part represents a whole
- 23. appeals to five senses
- 25. Qualities of each genre
- 26. way someone persuades the reader

Word Bank

- |                     |             |                 |           |            |          |
|---------------------|-------------|-----------------|-----------|------------|----------|
| synthesis           | ethos       | didactic        | allusion  | hyperbole  | diction  |
| pathos              | canon       | bias            | Ambiguity | Antithesis | persona  |
| imagery             | jargon      | metaphor        | tone      | thesis     | cliche   |
| purpose             | connotation | juxtaposition   | satire    | simile     | Decorum  |
| synecdoche          | logos       | Personification | syntax    | oxymoron   | rhetoric |
| rhetorical analysis |             |                 |           |            |          |