

AP Government Crossword Continued

Across

- 1. The process by which people acquire their political values
- 4. Which act ended the spoil system?
- 5. Equality of _____ is when everyone is guaranteed the same chance to succeed in life
- 6. Leaders who follow news in specific policy areas
- 13. A distribution of opinions that shows two responses being chosen about as frequently as each other
- 17. Civil rights are also referred to as "_____ rights"
- 19. An independent agency that regulates interstate and international communication (abbreviation)
- 21. _____ journalism scrutinizes public and business institutions
- 23. The implication that people choose what benefits them personally is called the _____ principle
- 24. Civil liberties are also referred to as "_____ rights"
- 25. A form of newsletter, journal, or "log" of thoughts for public reading
- 26. The cabinet department with the most employees is the _____

- 27. Relatively routine political behavior that uses institutional channels and is acceptable to the dominant culture
 - 29. A _____ aims at proportional allocation of benefits without requiring it
 - 30. The political _____ is a list of issues that need government attention
 - 31. Media executives, editors, or reporters who direct the flow of news
 - 32. Position in society, based on combination of education, occupational status, and income
- Down
- 2. An asymmetrical but generally bell shaped distribution of opinions
 - 3. The formal term for "soft news"
 - 7. The clear and present danger test was formulated by the court's decision in _____ v. United States
 - 8. A symmetrical bell shaped distribution of opinions
 - 9. _____ journalism is election coverage that focuses on which candidate is ahead rather than national issues
 - 10. The third clause in Article 1, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution

- 11. A commitment by a business, employer, or institution to expand opportunities for women, minorities, and the disabled
- 12. The collected attitudes of citizens concerning a given issue or question
- 14. The last clause in Section 8 of Article 1 in the U.S. Constitution
- 15. Plessy v. Ferguson based their decision on what doctrine?
- 16. A _____ event is a situation that is so "newsworthy" that the mass media are compelled to cover it
- 18. A _____ requires that a specified proportional share of a benefit go to a favored group
- 20. The degree to which a news story is important enough to be covered in mass media
- 22. Equality of _____ is when the government redistributes the wealth and status so the people have complete economic and social equality
- 28. W.E.B DuBois founded what association in 1909? (Abbreviation)

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------|---------------|----------------|----------------------|
| Separate but Equal | FCC | Agenda | Pendleton Act | Bimodal Distribution |
| Horse Race | Watchdog | NAACP | Media | Positive |
| Normal distribution | Schenck | Blogs | Opportunity | Outcome |
| Attentive Policy Elites | Skewed Distribution | Infotainment | Gatekeepers | Public Opinion |
| Political Socialization | Conventional Participation | Negative | Quote | Goal |
| Elastic Clause | Commerce Clause | Self Interest | Newsworthiness | Affirmative Action |
| Socioeconomic Status | Department of Defense | | | |