

AP Literature Vocab

Across

5. A politician may use a _____ to get the most amount of votes.
 6. A neon green shirt matched with neon orange shorts would look _____.
 8. Rachel finds someone with an Irish accent _____. Not because she is unaccustomed but because she is deaf.
 13. A person who doesn't listen to the opinions of others is _____.
 18. Melissa's _____ was renewed after her five hour energy drink.
 20. After the loss, Lauren was filled with _____ and despair.
 21. A drug addict's temptation is _____.
 22. A piece of pizza falling from the sky onto a man's face that was thinking about how he wanted pizza would be an example of _____.
 24. the rules in the kindergarten classroom were _____ to the crazy students.

25. Someone that eats pants would be considered _____.

Down

1. A person dressed in a rainbow jumpsuit and dancing during the middle of a meeting would be acting very _____.
 2. A child is usually ungrateful if they receive _____ socks and clothing from their relatives on holidays.
 3. A _____ may be given food and money by generous people that pass by.
 4. Victoria's family tree is very _____. She has a million relatives and ancestors.
 7. Jack has experienced a lot of _____ from his crippling gambling addiction.
 9. Doug's butler may demonstrate his _____ by complying to the house's demands.
 10. Keelan used every offensive joke he knew to get Hunter to respond to his _____.

11. Krystal thought her plan to rule the world was flawless, but she did not predict every possible _____.
 12. My teammates are _____ athletes. They never stop working.
 14. When a student is insulted by bullies he may feel a sense of _____.
 15. Brigid came down with the flu and her _____ distracted her from school.
 16. Many anxious patients are unaware of the _____ of simple surgeries.
 17. There were _____ bees in the nest under the deck. They flew everywhere!
 19. The teenage boy _____ at his girlfriend as she walked down the stairs elegantly in her prom dress.
 23. Brendan's love for cross country was _____.