

Name: _____

Date: _____

AP Vocab

Across

- 4. a figurative way of speaking using comparisons (adj)
- 5. how someone writes something so that it is not offensive (adv)
- 8. a language that contains or uses figures of speech (noun)
- 10. to describe how one is speaking (adj)
- 12. a kind of metaphor that compares two dissimilar things (noun)
- 15. a group of words that contains both a subject and a verb (noun)
- 16. to describe the action of comparing two dissimilar things (adj)

- 17. the choice of words or phrases in either speech or writing (noun)
- 18. to describe how someone spoke (adv)
- 19. the way an author writes to teach the reader a moral or lesson (adv)
- 20. an idea or feeling that pushes on top of the literal meaning (noun)

Down

- 1. to describe the idea that is hidden in the literal meaning (adj)
- 2. the replacement of an offensive words with a less harsh one (noun)

- 3. to describe group of words that contain both a subject and a verb (adj)
- 6. a way of speaking not literally (adv)
- 7. to describe a way of speaking using the words literal meaning (adv)
- 9. a comparison between two things that continues on through sentences in a paragraph (noun)
- 11. a type of literature meant to teach the reader (adj)
- 13. a phrase commonly used in day to day conversations (adj)
- 14. a words literal meaning (noun)