

AV Production II Crossword

Across

2. What kind of story is read on camera only?
 5. What is a story that is shot to look like a live shot?
 10. What kind of story can be used at any time, regardless of season or time of day?
 11. What is used to determine the length of a package or story?
 12. What is described as information people want to know, information they should know or information they need to know?

14. What is an appliance that both captures moving images and stores them on tape or other media?

Down

1. What type of media stretches and exaggerates facts?
 3. What do you call information that is unintentionally misleading?
 4. What is the distance between the subject's nose and the side of the frame called?

6. What is a type of news story that contains information that viewers need to know immediately?

7. What is the organization of stories and sequences of a newscast in written form?
 8. What kind of story is about 1-2 minutes long and includes b-roll, SOTs, and standups?
 9. What kind of story would include video from an event and a sound bite from a participant?
 13. What do you call a specific area regularly covered by a reporter?