

A Tale of Two Cities Chapter 7

Across

- 2. What does pulsation mean?
- 3. In this quote what is a synonym for saith? "The earth and the fullness thereof are mine, saith Monseigneur."
- 6. What word describes the farmer-general?
- 11. Subdued or restrained are both synonyms for what word?
- 12. In this quote what word fills the blank? "Without deigning to look at the _____ a second time, Monsieur the Marquis leaned back in his set..."
- 13. What word describes the father when his child is ran down by the carriage?

- 14. In this quote what does affably mean? "bestowing a word of promise here and a smile there, a whisper one happy slave and a wave of the hand on another, Monseigneur affably passed through his rooms.."
- 15. In this passage what best describes the people? "even then considering within themselves whether they should foam, rage, roar..."

Down

- 1. What is a synonym for savagely?
- 4. What is the definition of countenance?

- 5. What kind of person is an ecclesiastic?
- 7. What is the definition of perforce?
- 8. What is a synonym for supped?
- 9. What are maids referred to in this chapter?
- 10. In this passage what does equidistant mean? "but the watching towers of Notre Dame, almost equidistant from two extremes, could see them both"