

Abnormal Psychology Vocabulary

Across

2. a congenital syndrome caused when the mother drinks too much alcohol during pregnancy which causes retardation of mental development as well as physical growth in the skull and face

4. a disorder causing a distorted body image where someone extremely overeats and proceeds to purge, fast, or self-induce vomiting to not gain weight

7. a disorder where milder episodes of hypomania are present followed by periods of severe depression

12. to have sexual intercourse with or be attracted to corpses

14. a term used when there is a simultaneous presence of two disorders or diseases

16. a disorder that is caused by brain damage and affects the person's ability to understand or express speech

17. a mental disorder that causes a breakdown between thought, feelings, and emotions and can cause faulty perceptions as well as withdrawal from reality and into fantasy and delusion

18. a psychiatric disorder that causes debilitating anxiety and fear to arise frequently and without cause

21. a disorder that causes emotional highs and lows

22. a disorder that affects how you think, feel, and behave and causes a constant feeling of sadness as well as loss of interest

24. a defense mechanism where someone redirects a negative emotion from its original source to someone or something less threatening

25. a term used to describe someone who has similar high levels of stereotypical "feminine" and "masculine" psychological attributes/characteristics

Down

1. a problem where sexual urges cause someone to touch or rub their genitals on a non-consenting person or a stranger

3. disorders that cause problems with memory, identity, perception, emotion, behavior, and sense of self

5. a disorder that causes someone to have constant episodes of uncontrollably eating large quantities of food and then feeling guilt or shame afterwards

6. a disorder where a woman can't reach an orgasm during sexual intercourse

8. a symptom of a mental disorder that means maintaining an idea or belief regardless of it being contradicted by what's accepted as reality or as rational

9. a disorder where someone experiences severe mood changes from mania to depression

10. a disorder where there is an inability to get a firm enough erection for sexual intercourse or other sexual activities

11. a behavior where gratification is found with an abnormal link to a specific object, activity, or part of the body

13. a disorder causing significant distress where someone finds pleasure in being humiliated, beaten, or abused

15. a disorder causing significant distress where someone finds pleasure in humiliating or terrorizing someone in a not always consensual way

19. a neurodevelopmental disorder that causes attention difficulty, hyperactivity, impulsivity, forgetfulness, etc

20. an emotional disorder that causes an obsession with the desire to lose weight by not eating

23. a disorder where a person experiences something traumatic and continues to experience mental and emotional stress like vividly recalling the experience