

About The Car

Across

2. You use this to keep you facing in the direction of travel?
4. This control keeps the car still whilst waiting at Junctions, Traffic Lights or when parked
6. With out this, your car will not move? As you prepare to move off you need to find your?
7. This control is used for controlling the speed at which fuel enters the engine. What is it?
9. Before every journey these should be check for their safe and legal condition.

10. These are used to show your intended direction of travel to other road users.

Down

1. To give you the best view of the road behind you these items should be correctly adjusted as part of your cockpit drill, what are they?
3. In the event of a accident, this could be the most important thing, what is it?
5. If you accidentally leave these open whilst going along, your in for a scary ride.
8. It is used to break the link between the engine and the gearbox?

Word Bank

Seat Belt

Handbrake

Doors

Clutch

indicators

Steering Wheel

Biting point

Mirrors

Accelerator

tyres