

Academic Vocabulary 3

Across

- 2. very skinny or thin
- 6. enough or adequate for the purpose
- 8. one of a kind; original, one and only
- 9. a long established way of thinking or acting; handing down of legends; customs from previous generations
- 12. devoted or dedicated to God or some religious purpose
- 13. a number of lines forming a division in poetry

- 16. poetry, can be a line or a stanza; the part of the song that follows the introduction
 - 17. very serious, gloomily dark
- Down
- 1. necessary to life or essential; energetic and lively
 - 3. distrustful; inclined to suspect something evil
 - 4. without fruit or germs; not productive or able to produce offspring
 - 5. wrote carelessly and illegibly

- 7. to flinch or draw back as from a blow
- 10. a person who is competing for the same object or goal as another, or who tries to equal or outdo another
- 11. a wild, fierce, brutal or cruel person
- 14. a style or manner of writing; quality of sound or shade of color
- 15. empty, not filled, lacking in thought or intelligence