

Academic Vocabulary

Across

5. to bear or hold up; serve as a foundation for

8. an individual part; an item

9. to designate, stand for; symbolize

11. to assert or maintain as a fact

13. to recognize or establish as being a particular person or thing

14. a restatement of a text or passage giving the meaning in another form; rewording

16. to end or close; the final part

18. to state or express in a concise form

19. to give or provide the meaning of; explain; to understand in a particular way

20. to recognize as different; recognize the individual features or characteristics of

Down

1. to examine (two or more objects, ideas, people, etc.) in order to note similarities and differences

2. a discussion involving differing points of view; a statement, reason, or fact for or against a point

3. to compare in order to show unlikeness or differences

4. to judge or determine the significance, worth, or quality of

6. to tell in written or spoken words; give an account of

7. to examine material in order to bring out essential elements; to examine carefully and in detail to identify causes, key factors, possible results

10. to make plain or clear; render understandable or intelligible

12. to identify or discover the place

15. to draw a conclusion, as by reasoning; to guess or speculate using evidence

17. to quote (a passage, book, author, etc.) as an authority; to mention in support; proof