

Academic Vocabulary & Literary Devices

Across

7. occurs when what happens turns out to be different than what is expected

9. form of irony where the reader/ audience knows more about circumstances & future events than the characters do

12. accusation

14. methods a director uses to communicate meaning & evoke particular emotional responses from viewers

16. distinctive way a writer uses language, characterized by elements of diction, syntax, imagery, organization

18. reference made to a well-known person, event, or place from history, music, art, or another literary work

22. form of irony that occurs when speaker/ narrator says one thing while meaning the opposite

23. exact meanings/ denotations of words

24. account written by a person about his/ her own life

25. expression of opinions/ explanation about an event or situation

Down

1. group of police who pick up beggars/ homeless people

2. declaration/ statement often without proof

3. absent from school

4. use of words to describe one thing in terms of another

5. one sentence statement that summarizes key details of a text

6. explanation about significance/ importance of supporting details & examples in an analysis

8. anything (object, animal, event, person, or place) that represents itself & stands for something else on a figurative level

10. thriftiness

11. be enough

13. all knowing

15. hallway

17. writer's (or speaker's) attitude toward a subject

19. writer's central idea/ main message

20. atmosphere/ predominant emotion in a literary work, effect of words on audience

21. description/ account of events from a person's life, written by another person