

Act 3 Vocabulary

Across

- 3. A suspension of hostilities for a period of time
- 4. A violent windstorm or violent disturbance
- 5. Not constant or loyal
- 8. A close fitting Jacket (common dress for Renaissance men)
- 11. A servile follower
- 13. To be nothing or worthless; evil

- 15. To influence through deception; mislead or take away by cheating
- 16. To give a false or misleading appearance
- 17. To have bravery or courage
- 18. A distinctive uniform
- 19. To fight or to throw to and fro side to side

Down

- 1. To belong as a rightful attribute or part
- 2. To contrive, plan, or elaborate

- 6. A fabled serpent that could kill with its glance
- 7. To obtain by care, effort, or the use of special means
- 9. Of or pertaining to the Roman goddess Vesta, a characteristic of a virgin
- 10. To accompany or wait upon
- 12. Unusually fitted or qualified; having a tendency to
- 14. A skill in using one's hand, body, or mind (cleverness)