

Activity analysis- social interaction

Across

3. Does not demonstrate irrelevant, repetitive, or impulsive behaviors that are not part of social interaction
4. Displays affect and emotions in a way that is socially appropriate
6. Expresses a supportive attitude toward the social partner by agreeing with, empathizing with, or expressing understanding of the social partner's feelings and experiences
8. Uses socially appropriate gestures to communicate or support a message
11. Speaks for reasonable periods given the complexity of the message sent
13. Speaks in a fluent and continuous manner, with an even pace (not too fast, not too slow) and without pauses or delays during the message being sent
14. Produces spoken, signed, or augmentative (i.e., computer-generated) messages that are audible and clearly articulated
16. Responds to and uses touch or bodily contact with the social partner in a manner that is socially appropriate

17. Uses goal-directed social interactions focused on carrying out and completing the intended purpose of the social interaction

18. Handles transitions in the conversation smoothly or changes the topic without disrupting the ongoing conversation

19. Replies to social messages without delay or hesitation and without interrupting the social partner

21. Uses appropriate words and gestures to acknowledge receipt of services, gifts, or compliments

24. Effectively terminates the conversation or social interaction, brings to closure the topic under discussion, and disengages or says good-bye

25. Actively positions or turns the body and face toward the social partner or person who is speaking

26. Takes his or her turn and gives the social partner the freedom to take his or her turn

27. Acknowledges receipt of messages, encourages the social partner to continue interaction, and encourages all social partners to participate in social interaction

Down

1. Prevents problems with ineffective or socially inappropriate social interaction from recurring or persisting

2. Prevents ineffective or socially inappropriate social interaction

5. Responds to gestures or verbal messages signaling that the social partner does not comprehend or understand a message and ensures that the social partner is following the conversation

7. Approaches or initiates interaction with the social partner in a manner that is socially appropriate

9. Uses a tone of voice, dialect, and level of language that are socially appropriate and matched to the social partner's abilities and level of understanding

10. Keeps conversation going by replying appropriately to question and comments

12. Reveals opinions, feelings, and private information about self or others in a manner that is socially appropriate

15. Expresses differences of opinion in a socially appropriate manner

20. Positions self at an appropriate distance from the social partner during the social interaction

22. Requests relevant facts and information and asks questions that support the intended purpose of the social interaction

23. Makes eye contact with the social partner