

Advanced figurative language

Across

- 2. Comparing two related things with different characteristics (she was a candle in the dark)
- 4. A statement that is self-contradictory but may be partially true
- 7. When a part of something being called the whole (coke being called soda)
- 8. Combination of opposite words

10. Comparison showing two different things with similar qualities using like or as

11. Giving something non-human human quality

12. A person or thing that is the direct opposite of someone or something else (love is the antithesis of hate)

Down

1. Substitution of the name of an attribute or adjunct for that of the thing meant

3. Exaggerated statement (I could eat a horse)

5. Talking to something that is not a living human

6. An understatement that makes something big sound minor (I just got stage 4 cancer. Its nothing big)

9. Understatement by using double negatives (shes not ugly)