

Against the Odds

Across

2. combine (one thing) with another so that they become a whole

6. the enforced separation of different racial groups in a country, community, or establishment

7. the fact or state of belonging to a social group that has a common national or cultural tradition

9. a tool, utensil, or other piece of equipment, especially as used for a particular purpose, put (a decision, plan, agreement, etc.) into effect

11. express or feel sympathy or pity; sympathize

12. appointed to an office or position but not yet installed.

13. in a way that never ends or changes; constantly

14. understand and share the feelings of another

Down

1. introducing new ideas; original and creative in thinking

3. the state or experience of being isolated from a group or an activity to which one should belong or in which one should be involved

4. as a result of a sudden impulse and without premeditation, without apparent external cause or stimulus

5. look thoughtfully for a long time at, think profoundly and at length; meditate.

8. the ability or willingness to tolerate something, in particular the existence of opinions or behavior that one does not necessarily agree with

10. a way of regarding, understanding, or interpreting something; a mental impression