

Name: _____

Date: _____

Age related conditions

Across

2. a mental health problem characterised by long period of low mood, affecting sleep, relationship, job and appetite
5. a condition causing bones to become thin and brittle
9. an infectious disease caused by the influenza virus, marked especially by respiratory symptoms
10. _____ cancer is most common in men, occurring in the prostate
11. may be described as defaecation that is unsatisfactory due to infrequent stools, difficulty passing stools or a sensation of incomplete evacuation

12. _____'s disease is a brain disorder that leads to shaking, stiffness, and difficulty with walking, balance, and coordination
14. an umbrella term for the diseases emphysema, chronic bronchitis and chronic asthma
15. occurs when the pancreas is no longer able to make insulin, or when the body cannot make good use of the insulin it produces.

Down

1. a normal part of ageing for a woman and literally means "last period"
3. also known as cystitis or a bladder infection, can affect any part of your urinary system - kidneys, ureters, bladder and urethra

4. an area of damaged skin and tissue often caused by staying in one position for too long
6. lack of involuntary control over urination or defecation
7. a serious condition where your heart struggles to pump blood around your body
8. characterised by stiffness that can involve almost any part of the body, most often the knee, joints, hip, toes and fingers
13. a sudden interruption of blood flow to part of the brain causing it to stop working and eventually damaging brain cells