

Agriculture

Across

2. What is the most harmful insecticide?
5. What is low input agriculture also called?
8. _____ is a strategy used to save your crops from insects?
12. Which Horizon is made up of weathered parent material?
13. How many systems do humans mainly depend on their food supply?
18. _____ was the first synthetic inorganic pesticide?
19. Most of Canada is too _____, dry, and rocky for agriculture.
20. The number of farms has been _____ in recent decades
22. What revolution started in 1950?
23. Which horizon is made up of humus and organic matter?
24. Which countries agriculture is a $95 billion industry?

25. What kind of agriculture is practiced by 42% of the world's population?

26. _____ is a major problem in Ontario, BC, and the Maritimes
27. The R horizon consists entirely of _____?
28. picture
30. _____ is a strategy used to prevent salinization?
31. What is known as the distinct cross section as a whole, from surface to bedrock?
32. What cropland produces 77% of the world's food?

Down

1. The average size of farms have _____ in recent decades
3. What is the most common rodenticide?
4. What is high input agriculture also called?
6. What country is 'agribusiness' most dominant in?

7. Which food system only supplies about 7% of the world's food?

9. What is a major component of fertilizer?
10. Today only _____ plants and animal species supply 90% of our global intake.
11. What grain does 2/3 of the world's population survive off of?
14. What is used to divert pests away from crops?
15. What type of agriculture is predominantly used in tropical developing countries?
16. _____ is the agricultural practice of producing one crop at a time
17. What kind of rainfall leaches minerals and nutrients from the top soil and leaching layer down below the reach of the roots?
21. What type of soil conservation is the practice of tilling sloped land along the lines of consistent elevation?
29. What is a layer of soil called?