

Air

Across

- 2. an atmospheric condition in which air above is warmer than that air below.
- 4. the condition in which air contains substances harmful to living things
- 10. highly acidic rain, sleet, or snow that results from the release of oxides sulfur and nitrogen into the air from burning fossil fuels
- 11. fog or haze combined with smoke and other atmospheric pollutants

Down

- 1. When people in the same building and experience acute health or comfort related effects that seem to be linked to time spent in the same building.

- 3. pollutants put directly into the air by human activities

- 5. What keeps the air pollution from reaching dangerous levels?
- 6. consists of smoke, ash, soot, dust, lead, and other particles, from burning fuels
- 7. US federal law designed to control air pollution on a national level
- 8. a sudden influx of acidic water caused by melting acidic snows that rush into the lakes and streams killing life.
- 9. a gas produced naturally in the earth by the decay of Uranium