

Algebra Crossword

Across

- 1. A number that is much larger or smaller than other values in a data set
- 2. The lowest point on a parabola
- 5. The maximum or minimum of a parabola and is also along the axis of symmetry
- 8. Used to solve quadratic equations
- 9. The highest point on a parabola
- 12. Finding something close to the answer
- 16. A curve where any point is at an equal distance from a fixed point

17. The steepness of a line

- 18. The difference between the lowest and highest numbers in a data set
- 20. A technique to distribute two binomials
- 21. The quantity representing how much a number is going to be multiplied by itself

Down

- 3. The number in the middle of a data set in numerical order
- 4. Having all of the same lengths of a triangle
- 6. The set of values of the independent variable

7. The change of placing of a figure on a graph

- 10. The line through the parabola that makes it so that each side is a mirror image
- 11. A number less than 0
- 13. The average value in a data set
- 14. A number between 1 and 0 that's represented by one over the other
- 15. A polygon with three edges
- 19. A straight figure without end