

Algebra

Across

2. all rational and irrational numbers

9. a combination of constants and variables connected by one or more operations

10. the number behind and above behind the base in the base

11. the number in front of a variable that tells how many times the variable has been multiplied

12. positive and negative numbers and zero

Down

1. an algebraic expression written in words

3. two algebraic expressions set equal to one another

4. addition, subtraction, multiplication, division

5. any letter representing a missing number

6. any number real or imaginary

7. the product of the base multiplied by itself exponent number of times

8. two or more algebraic expressions that are compared using $<$, $>$, etc.