

Algebra keywords

Across

2. The result of multiplication.
3. Something that has exactly the same variables and exponents.
7. A number that is placed in front of a variable.
9. To combine all that can be combined, reduce the number of terms, and put an expression in an easily understandable form.
10. The expression on one side of the equal sign has the same value as the expression on the other side.

Down

1. A mathematical phrase with constants, variable, and/or operations symbols, but no equal sign.
4. To find the answer. In algebra, it means to figure out what the variable stands for.
5. It is often represented by a letter.
6. To remove common factors from an expression.
8. A special type of equation that shows the relationship between different variables.