

Allogeneic Stem Cell Transplantation

Across

4. What type of transplant uses high doses of chemotherapy and/or radiation for its preparative regimen?
5. What is the name of the cell surface antigens that are on white blood cells?
8. What is the federal agency that coordinates a donor database?
9. These cells fight infection and repair damaged tissue.
12. What is one hematological malignancy that would warrant a stem cell transplant?

13. A non-myeloablative transplant is also known as a ...
14. What organ is affected in veno-occlusive disease?
15. Patients are severely immunocompromised, making them vulnerable to ...
16. What is the effect of donor cells fighting off residual cancer cells called?

Down

1. What chemotherapeutic agent kills activated T lymphocytes following a haplo-identical transplant?

2. What bones contain the most stem cells, the pelvic bones and the ?
3. After a haplo transplant, 60 % of patients develop a...
6. What is the most common and serious complication of allogeneic transplantation?
7. This occurs when the patient's cell counts are increasing without the aid of blood product transfusions.
10. Where do blood cells develop?
11. GVHD affects three body systems. The liver, GI tract, and the ...